Institutional Partnerships Manager

2022 IN NUMBERS

25,572 Community Empowerment Program (CEP) participants in 341 communities in five countries—Senegal, Guinea, Mali, The Gambia, and Guinea Bissau.

78% of program participants are women and girls.

3,360 neighboring communities reached through CEP participant outreach activities.

72 community Peace Commissions set up in Mali and Guinea and trained on Tostan's Peace and Security module.

666 local elected officials from Senegal and The Gambia trained on Strengthening Democracy and Civic Engagement.

119 participants from 10 countries trained at the Tostan Training Center.

6 public declarations held by 332 communities in Senegal, Mali, and Guinea Bissau to announce their decision to abandon harmful traditional practices.

260 members of Civil Society Organization platforms and religious leader networks in Nigeria participated in seminars led by Tostan-trained facilitators.

TOSTAN STAFF

312 Community Facilitators

266 Country Administrative and Program Staff

47 Tostan International Staff

Tostan's mission is to empower communities to develop and realize their vision of the future and to inspire large-scale movements towards dignity for all. Tostan is a non-profit organization based in Thies, Senegal, operating in five West African countries (Senegal, Guinea, Mali, Guinea-Bissau, Gambia).

You have a Master's Degree in relevant field; Fluency in French and English required; At least 5 years with experience in:

o institutional giving, including a proven track record of producing successful funding bids for $100,000 funding levels with recognized institutional donors;
o strategic partnership development.
At least 2 years in a supervisory role

Send us your application with the reference "IPM2024" before the date of December 08th,2023 to the following address hr@tostan.org with :

• A cover letter;
• A detailed CV with contact information for three references, one of which must be your current or previous supervisor;
• Copies of your diplomas and certificates.

You will find below the link to consult the job description : JD_Institutional Partnerships Manager